MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Federal Personnel Security Investigation Program: Meeting of Interested Agencies
on December 18, 1979

A meeting on the above-mentioned subject was held in the Pentagon to explore the feasibility of implementing recommendations contained in the GAO report. The session was chaired by Mr. Thomas J. O'Brien, Director of Security Plans and Programs for the Deputy Undersecretary of Defense (Policy). According to one participant, discussion centered on preliminary plans to consider scope of investigations, investigative costs, and criteria for determining sensitive positions. The next meeting is scheduled for 29 January 1980.
